

Cat Training Orientation

Presented by:

Prrrfect Pets Cat Training

Helpful and important information for new and experienced cat parents

Session includes:

- Getting to know your new cat
- Cautions & safety
- Litter & food options
- Developing trust and making changes
- Having an interactive & manageable cat
- Why & what to teach your cat
- Meet Violet, Rosy, and Charlie
- And much more!

Marble

Recommended as a pre-requisite for class sessions (described on flip side)

* This session is for humans only; felines may not attend ****

Session dates:

When & Where:

Oct. 31, 2009 11:30 am
211 King Street - 3rd floor

Sponsored by:

Tails High & Mindful Hands
Alexandria, 22314

No charge for this session, but please bring a donation or supplies for Tails High

Additional orientations will be scheduled in the coming months
— Email, or call for dates & locations

Call or email to reserve your spot
Walk-ins also welcome

info@prrrfectpets.com

(202) 390-5878

Teach your cat some manners!

Learn how to get results with

Prrrfect Pets Cat Training

Teach Your Cat Classes

These are some of the useful & beneficial tasks and commands that will be covered in these hands-on group sessions:

- Go to Mat
- Off
- Wait
- Learn their name
- Sit
- Lie Down
- Come when called

Introduction to feline agility included.

Sign up for November classes - Space is limited!

- Learn different training techniques
- Homework activities assigned at each session
- Feline attendees must be current in all vaccinations and have negative FIV and FeLV test results. Please bring proof of vaccinations & test results.
- Folks with adult cats are welcome but most adult cats will be too uncomfortable to attend. If your adult cat is acclimated to out-of-home noises and activities, let's discuss the possibility of your cat attending sessions.

info@prrrfectpets.com

(202) 390-5878